

Why Should YOU Register for Leadership Hillsdale County?

- To gain a heightened awareness concerning the Hillsdale community, its needs and issues.
- To develop an enhanced desire to become a community steward.
- To create personal goals which will allow you to reflect and assess leadership concepts and skills for your future development.

Class Service Project

As a part of your Leadership Hillsdale County experience, you will work with a group of classmates on the completion of a service project to benefit a Hillsdale County Nonprofit.

Each group will be responsible to meet, plan, and execute the project in partnership with their nonprofit, with the guidance of the Leadership Steering Committee. These Partnerships will help build a better understanding of how our nonprofit community works.

What is Leadership Hillsdale County?

Leadership Hillsdale County prepares individuals for leadership roles in various business, civic, citizen and nonprofit organizations within the Hillsdale community.

Be a part of something transformational and join the first class of Leadership Hillsdale County. Give yourself the opportunity to grow and develop into the leader you want to be and go out into the community and make a positive impact.

“Leadership is the capacity to translate vision into reality.”
